Nowadays It's COLORADO!

The new overland service between Chicago and Colorado is via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul

and
Union Pacific Line

This is also the route of The Overland Limited and two other handsomely equipped trains Chicago to California every day.

The new overland service includes thro' train service to Nebraska, Colorado, Utah and California points, and direct service to North Pacific Coast points.

If you are going that way, it is well worth your while to write for the book "Colorado-California," and to post yourself about the new overland service. A postal card will bring complete information.
